

2009 UTAH AUGMENTATIVE CONFERENCE – UAAACT Members

Wednesday February 11th Through Friday February 13th, 2009

At the Provo Marriott Hotel/Conference Center, 101 West 100 North, Provo, Utah 84601, 801-377-4700
$75.00/night single occupancy and $85.00 double occupancy

The 2009 Utah Augmentative Conference is sponsored by the Utah State Office of Education, the Utah State Office of Rehabilitation and the Utah Augmentative Alternative Assistive Communication and Technology Teams (UAAACT Project). The Pre-conference session (for UAAACT members only) will be held on Wednesday, February 11, 2009. Keri Huddleston and Teru Langsdale will present “What if the Teachers Won’t Do It.” We will also have the UAAACT dinner on Wednesday evening. Libby Rush (February 12) an AAC and AT consultant, and Susan Johnston (February 13) of the University of Utah will be keynote speakers. Other sessions will be presented by UAAACT teams, assistive technology experts, and vendors who develop and sell technology tools.

There is no fee for Utah residents to attend the conference, but registration is limited to the first 350 individuals who mail in or fax the registration form. Conference participants may choose to register for one semester credit hour from the University of Utah on Wednesday morning, February 12th, at the conference registration table. The registration fee for university credit will be approximately $80.00 at your own expense. Relicensure credit will also be offered at the conference.

Conference registration and a continental breakfast will begin at 7:45 a.m. on Wednesday, February 11th and the conference will conclude at 1:30 p.m. on Friday, February 13th. A confirmation notice will be mailed to conference participants who register by January 9th. If you will be staying at the Provo Marriott, please call the phone number above to reserve a room at the special conference rate. You must reserve your room by Friday, January 9, 2008 to get the conference rate.
